

London Leadership Academy

Open Masterclass Series 2017/18

The LLA Open Masterclass Series is open to all staff from NHS Organisations. Our Masterclasses offer attendees an opportunity to hear from speakers who bring valued expertise and thinking on leadership issues. The half day sessions commence at 09:30 – 13:00, they are very interactive as we encourage speakers to ensure the sessions are inclusive.

We pleased to have been able to plan a series of Open Masterclass covering key topics from our local priorities Organisational Development, Inclusion, Systems Leadership and Talent Management.

DATE	TOPIC	SPEAKER
10 October 2017	Leadership Styles	Liz Wiggins
28 November 2017	Vital Conversation	Alec Grimsley
9 January 2018	Inclusive Leadership	Eden Charles
6 February 2018	The Art of Being Brilliant	Darrell Woodman

For more information or if you have any queries please contact Samantha.richards@hee.nhs.uk

Providing the time and space for leaders to think

MASTERCLASSES

10 October 2017

09:30 – 13:00

LEADERSHIP STYLES

Liz Wiggins

Overview

A highly-participative session with 'theory bursts' to stimulate thinking and conversation. Looking at 'The myth of the power of one' – why we need to think differently about the leader as hero in today's context. What are the other options and how different are they in practice? A canter through distributed, system, relational and living leadership. Creating the type of followers that enable you to be the leader you want to be. Click here to book online

Liz has over twenty years' experience working with leaders as well as leading change herself at Unilever. She is also a qualified executive coach and supervisor. Her latest book is 'Relational Change: The Art of Changing Organisations' published by Bloomsbury in December 2016. Dr Liz Wiggins has worked at Ashridge Business School for 8 years where she is Co-Programme Director of GenerationQ and Associate Professor of Change and Leadership. She is also a researcher and writer with an interest in the practice of shifting cultures, organization change and leadership development in health. Her health sector experience includes work with Trust Boards, CSUs, CCGs, NIHR and coaching senior NHS Executives.

28 November 2017

13:00 – 15:00

VITAL CONVERSATIONS

Alec Grimsley

Overview

Understand the DNA of a vital conversation. Becoming clear on why communication breaks down and relationships begin to become dysfunctional. Explore three generations of mindset and the case for adopting a third generation mindset. Click here to book online

Alec has over 14 years' experience of training NHS leaders how to have vital and often difficult conversations. Over 4,000 NHS professionals have attended his Vital Conversations workshops over the last 8 years. Alec's book "Vital Conversations" reached number 1 in the leadership category of Amazon UK. He also is a volunteer community mediator for Dorset Mediation, a trust that offers conflict resolution and mediation services for those who would not normally have the financial resources to access such expertise.

9 January 2018

09:30 – 13:00

INCLUSIVE LEADERSHIP

Eden Charles

Overview

Exploring Inclusive Leadership and its barriers. Looking at how to support diversity whilst driving and motivating staff. We will look at tools which can be developed to help embed inclusive leadership in organisations.

*Eden works globally with businesses and NGO's, increasing leadership capacity of them and the individuals within them. He is experienced at working with political and cultural diversity, including culture change work at 10 Downing Street at a critical moment in British political life. Eden has run experiential learning programmes for more than 20 years. He is recognised as a national thought leader and has an outstanding track record in helping black and minority ethnic managers succeed in their careers and in assisting organisations successfully strategise and implement changes that actually lead to a change. Click here to book online

6 February 2018

09:30 – 13:00

THE ART OF BEING BRILLIANT

Darrell Woodman

Overview

Using cutting edge research to explore how you can be you, brilliantly. The aim is to share some of the 'secrets' of Positive Psychology, focusing on learning new habits of thinking and behaviour that will sustain personal 'brilliance'. It is about the 'whole you' and, as such, is applicable in and out of work.

Darrell is a trainer and Director of Art of Brilliance and has immersed in the 'brilliant' philosophy and is now a boffin in areas of positivity, happiness, wellbeing. He was plucked from a leadership role within media, where he spent time helping develop talent in the media industry. Instilling positivity, confidence and self-belief has been a major factor in his coaching of people and teams from radio stations in Sheffield, Hull and Wolverhampton. He has many proud moments in his career, but none more so than seeing individuals achieving and feeling greatness.

Click here to book online

Testimonials

Very inspiring and thought provoking. Challenging mindsets and what I can change

Great presentation - videos brought subject to life

Group exercises. Innovative powerpoint slides - use of technology, comedy/humour injected into the session, video clips

It was inspiring - really motivated me and put me back on track. I will apply what I have learned

Brilliant speaker. Lots to change and work on. Really enjoyed the session and feel motivated

It has given me real insight into the leader I want to be and to achieve what I have always wanted to achieve

A silhouette of a city skyline with various buildings of different heights and colors (blue, orange, green, red) is positioned at the bottom center of the page.

Providing the time and space for leaders to think